WELCOME HOME

Cheer on the Dawgs!

A nationally ranked women’s rowing team with a celebrated legacy. Fifteen appearances at the historic Rose Bowl. A tradition of Pac-12 championships — most recently in softball and men’s basketball.

From Husky Stadium to the Montlake Cut, Dawg fans always have plenty to cheer about.

Do you want to be an artist, adventurer, entrepreneur — or all of the above? Seattle is a vibrant, multicultural city with career, arts, sports and outdoor opportunities for everyone. We’re home to caffeinated and connected self-starters whose ideas are changing the world.

Nestled among two mountain ranges, old-growth forests, Lake Washington and the Pacific Ocean, Seattle is an urban hub surrounded by unparalleled natural beauty.

Commuter & Transfer Commons (CTC)

Stash your lunch in the kitchen. Keep your things safe in a locker. Meet fellow commuting and transfer students while you study or wait for the bus. Whatever your needs, the CTC provides a dedicated space and a variety of services and resources for commuting and transfer students.

WHERE YOU BELONG
1909 UW graduates

1980–81: UW scientists develop human proteins in yeast, leading to the hepatitis B vaccine in use today.

1980: Tim Paterson, ’78, writes the disk operating system that becomes MS-DOS.

1936: A UW eight-oar rowing team (the famed “Boys in the Boat”) wins gold at the Berlin Olympics in the lead-up to WWII.

Whether we’re making The Wave famous or making waves in health care, technology, social justice or athletics, the UW has sent out ripples of impact since 1861.
You don’t stop learning when you leave the classroom — time outside of class can be just as transformative. Immersive learning experiences help you turn ideas into action. Through personalized career coaching, we’ll support you in defining and achieving your goals — and connect you with mentors and internships to guide you on your way.

Where will you work?
Our graduates start their careers all over the world, but many begin at well-known institutions right in our backyard.

研究中心和实习

Where will your interests take you? Will you get hands-on experience on an oceanographic research vessel? Enter a business-plan competition? Mentor high-school youth? Intern at a local arts organization?

We can help you get where you want to go. So where will you learn? What will you discover? And how will you change the world?

Center for Experiential Learning & Diversity (EXPD)
EXPD is home to nine programs, each of which helps UW undergraduates enrich their education and engage in their community through research, service learning, volunteering, leadership and scholarship opportunities.

CHOOSING A MAJOR
Consider your interests: Which classes do you enjoy most?
Assess your abilities: What are your strengths and challenges?
Explore your options: With over 180 majors at the UW, many paths can lead from a single interest. The program that’s right for you might be one you haven’t considered (or even heard of) yet.

ARTS, HUMANITIES AND DESIGN
Intrigued by human society and culture? Do you want to create, design or perform? Are you driven to learn all about a particular language or part of the world? The arts, humanities or design might be for you.

BUSINESS
Business professionals fuel the world’s economies and industries — from entrepreneurs and visionaries to managers, accountants and salespeople. Who makes the world go round? Maybe you do.

COMPUTING-RELATED
Fascinated by how a computer works? Or want to use data, information and technology to solve problems in your chosen field? You can use computers in any major at the UW, but some have a stronger emphasis on computing.

ENGINEERING
Engineers build bridges and work on problems from the microscopic (genetic engineering) to the global (maintaining a sustainable planet). Today’s engineers take on large-scale problems with cross-cultural impact. Do you want to build the future?

HEALTH
Health-sciences professionals improve lives by alleviating human suffering — one person at a time or for whole populations. They listen, investigate and help us understand ourselves and our bodies. Do you want to help people live healthier, happier lives?

NATURAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES
Explore life cycles and systems, bodies and biospheres, ecology and evolution. Investigate a single neuron or the ocean floor. Are you interested in exploring life and the world that sustains it?

SOCIAL SCIENCES
Social scientists are all about people — what we have in common, how we’re different, what makes us human. They study our diverse rituals, customs and laws; how we communicate; and the way we live now and did in the past. They’re people studying people.

Admission to majors
Admission to majors for transfer students depends largely on the program to which you are applying. Some UW programs require that you enroll at the UW before applying to the major, while others require a separate application in addition to the UW application. Visit MyMajor to find specific requirements for each major: admit.uw.edu/apply/transfer/resources/mymajor

Students who are admissible directly to their department or major will have priority for admission to the UW. There are three main types of departmental admissions:

OPEN MAJORS
These majors are open to you at the time of admission to the UW or anytime thereafter.

MAJORS WITH MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS
These majors have set admission requirements, such as completing introductory courses with a cumulative GPA of 2.50. They generally admit all applicants who meet the minimum requirements, without any further screening or selection.

CAPACITY-CONSTRAINED MAJORS
These majors have admission requirements and a selective screening process; they often include an application deadline and may require test scores, portfolios, auditions, letters of recommendation or interviews. Completion of the minimum admission requirements does not guarantee admission to capacity-constrained majors.

Departmental vs. university deadlines
Applicants to capacity-constrained majors should file a UW application and may need to file a separate application with the department. Regardless of the department’s deadlines, you must complete your UW application by the deadlines specified on pages 20–21.

Some UW majors are in greater demand than others, and capacity may be limited; we can’t guarantee that you’ll be admitted to the major of your choice.

Tip: Applying to majors
What will you do if your first-choice major doesn’t work out? We encourage you to explore and develop a plan for a second-choice major. (You may apply to more than one major.)

Use your personal statement to explain what you’ll do if you are not admitted to your first-choice major. This information will help Admissions staff understand your plans.
Transferring takes careful planning: You'll be working simultaneously on requirements for admission to the UW, for your intended major, for graduation from the UW and possibly for an associate degree. The more you work on multiple requirements at the same time, the smoother and more successful your transfer to the UW will be.

Transfer credit evaluation
The Office of Admissions completes a course-by-course evaluation of transfer credit after a newly admitted student pays the New Student Enrollment & Orientation Fee (NSEOF).

We do not complete transfer credit evaluations for students who have not applied, have not received an offer of admission or have not paid the NSEOF.

Transfer Thursdays
All prospective transfer students are invited and encouraged to attend Transfer Thursday, where you’ll learn more about transferring to the UW, including departmental information. Check the Transfer Thursday website for the schedule offered on the specific Thursday you plan to attend. Not all topics are offered every week.

College Academic Distribution Requirements (CADRs)
Admission to the UW requires completion of coursework in the subjects listed below — whether in high school, college or a combination of the two. The UW does not waive CADRs for students who complete an associate degree or who have earned 90 credits.

Learn more about how to satisfy each CADR: admit.uw.edu/apply/transfer/cadr

Test scores
SAT or ACT scores are not required, regardless of the number of transferable college credits you have earned.
ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY
FOR GRADUATION

All new students (U.S. and international) will be required to satisfy the English Language Proficiency Requirement (ELPR). Most applicants have already satisfied the ELPR prior to enrolling at the UW. For example, being a native speaker of English, having a qualifying test score or completing an academic associate degree at a Washington community college exempts students from this requirement. Those who are not exempt will be required to satisfy ELPR upon enrolling at the UW. This requirement is distinct from the English proficiency requirements for international students described on the facing page.

FOR INTERNATIONAL TRANSFER APPLICANTS

International students must submit an official test score that meets the UW’s minimum English proficiency requirement. English proficiency will be considered in the holistic review process. Strong applicants will demonstrate a higher level of English proficiency and will have earned the recommended score (see table) to be exempt from the UW’s Academic English Program (AEP). The exam must be taken on or before February 15, 2021, and scores must be sent directly from the testing agency.

admit.uw.edu/apply/transfer/how-to-apply/english-proficiency

Note for 2021 international transfer applicants

*Due to limited testing availability during the COVID-19 pandemic, the UW will accept a score of at least 105 on Duolingo’s English Test (englishtest.duolingo.com) for autumn 2021 applicants. Official test scores, including subscores, should be sent to the University of Washington. Exams taken on or before February 15, 2021 will be considered.

Using SAT or ACT scores as an English proficiency alternative

The UW will consider the English proficiency requirement satisfied for students who attended a school for grades 10–12 in which English was the primary language of instruction and who have both:

• A minimum grade of B in all secondary-school-level English writing or literature courses in which English was the primary language of instruction and
• A minimum ACT English score of 22 or SAT Evidence-Based Reading and Writing score of 580

Does college coursework or an associate degree exempt me from submitting test scores to demonstrate English proficiency?

No, neither of these situations exempts international students from this admission requirement:

• Completing previous ESL or college English courses
• Completing or planning to complete an academic associate degree from a U.S. community college

UW application
Except for the spring application, which is paper, all other transfer applications must be submitted online.

Application fee
The application fee is nonrefundable and must be submitted every time you apply. Fee waivers are available.

Personal statement
Find more information about writing the personal statement online at admit.uw.edu/apply/transfer/how-to-apply/personal-statement.

Transcripts
Official transcripts are required. For more information on which transcripts to submit, what makes a transcript official and how to submit them, visit admit.uw.edu/apply/transfer/how-to-apply/transcripts.

Application to intended major or department (if applicable)
Find everything you need to know about the requirements for your intended major at admit.uw.edu/apply/transfer/resources/my-major.

You are strongly encouraged to submit a department application if you meet prerequisites and are applying to a capacity-constrained major.

Official TOEFL or IELTS scores
Official English proficiency exam scores must be sent directly from the testing agency. See instructions on pages 18–19.

Proof of funding
Proof of funding is not required at the time of application. However, it is required before the UW can issue immigration documents. See page 23 for more information about the cost of attendance.

Key dates & deadlines
All required materials must be submitted or postmarked by the application deadline to be assured of admission consideration. We encourage you to submit all required materials far in advance of the deadline. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Financial aid

To be considered for all forms of UW financial aid, file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or, for undocumented students living in Washington, the Washington Application for State Financial Aid (WASFA).

- The FAFSA and WASFA open October 1.
- The priority date for both is January 15.

For more information, visit:

- fafsa.gov
- readysgrad.org/wasfa
- uw.edu/financialaid

Scholarships

The UW offers scholarships for everything from academic pursuits and research activities to community service and musical talents. You are considered for some scholarship programs automatically as part of your admission or financial aid applications, while others are available through departments once you’re enrolled.

- admit.uw.edu/costs/scholarships

Husky Promise

The Husky Promise is our guarantee that financial challenges will not stand in the way of Washington state students’ ability to earn a UW degree. It ensures that full tuition and standard fees will be covered by grant or scholarship support for eligible students.
