Writing Section (W)

The writing section is a required part of the application. It is an opportunity for us to get to know you better and for you to create a context for your academic performance and personal history. See Application Instructions for required essay topics.

Verification of Funding for Studies in the U.S. (VF)

Immigration laws require international students who wish to study in the U.S. on an F-1 visa to show proof of finances for one year.

The University of Washington does not offer financial assistance or scholarships. To complete the application for admission, students who will require an I-20/F-1 visa to study at the Seattle campus of the University of Washington must verify sufficient funds for one year of study.

Students must verify a minimum of:

$56,973 For those beginning studies autumn quarter

Please do not submit bank documents or financial information with your application. If you are offered admission and you decide to enroll at the University of Washington, you will be required to submit a bank statement or letter showing proof of finances. Detailed instructions will be sent with the offer of admission.

- VF-1.  I certify that I have sufficient funds for study in the U.S. and that I will be responsible for the total cost of tuition and living expenses for each year of study at the University of Washington.

Checklist and Signature Statement (CL, SS)

CL-1. Application Checklist

I understand that a complete application, which includes the following materials, must be submitted by the application deadline.

- This application, completed in full
- 90 USD application fee
- Writing Section
- Official English proficiency exam scores (sent directly from the testing agency)
- Transcripts from all high schools or secondary schools attended must be uploaded with the online application or attached to the paper application.
- College and university transcripts must be sent to the Office of Admissions.
- Official English translations must be provided of all academic transcripts if documents are not in English

SS-1. In signing this form, I certify that the statements I have made in this application and include in subsequent correspondence are/will be complete and true to the best of my knowledge. I acknowledge that it is my responsibility to be aware of all pertinent admission and application requirements and that I have read and understand the application instructions.

I confirm that the documents and information submitted have not been altered, modified or changed in any way, and I authorize the University of Washington to verify the authenticity of my academic records submitted with my application.

I understand that failure to disclose complete and accurate information, and/or failure to submit all required application information and official documents — including those outlined above — may result in the denial of admission, withdrawal of admission, subsequent dismissal from the University of Washington or other corrective actions as necessary.

I understand that my complete application must be signed and submitted by the application deadline to be considered for admission.
